

OCCUMED OF NEW ENGLAND

REGINA SELLINGER
Director of Clinical Operations

CERTIFICATIONS

- Certified Nuclear Medical Technologist
- BLS/CPR/AED certification
- OSHA 10 and 30 HR Construction
- 40 HR Hazwoper
- Driver's Training
- Fit Testing
- Respiratory Awareness
- Temperature Screening
- DOT Drug Screening
- Quest Diagnostics Drug Screening
- Fire Extinguisher
- HIPAA
- Reasonable Suspicion

OccuMed of New England formed as a division of United Alliance Services Corporation to assist clients with growing health and safety regulatory requirements by providing guidance on issues pertaining to employee safety and health.

Regina was a certified and registered Nuclear Medicine Technologist for over 30 years, which is a specialized area of radiology that uses radiopharmaceuticals to examine organ function and structure. She has also held various positions working with mentally, emotionally and physically challenged individuals of all ages.

As the Director of Clinical Operation, Regina is responsible for overseeing the daily operations of the OccuMed medical facility including staffing and patient care.

- Administering patient care as required by Massachusetts Statewide Treatment Protocols / company policies.
- Delivering quality patient care in accordance with clinical policies, statewide protocol, and standards of care.
- Observes, records, and reports to physician, patient's conditions, and reaction to drugs, treatments, and significant incidents.
- Covid-19 Screening
- Administer Flu Shots
- Fit Testing
- Pre Hire Screening
- Client Security Badging
- Response Drill Support
- First Aid/AED/Eye Wash Monthly Inspections
- Fire Extinguisher Monthly Inspections